

LEAD-BASED PAINT DISCLOSURE

- Federal law mandates that Sellers of housing constructed prior to 1978 must complete certain Lead-Based Paint 1
- Disclosure requirements. These should be completed before the Buyer makes an offer and certainly before the 2
- Seller accepts a purchase offer, otherwise the Buyer may not be obligated under any contract to purchase such 3
- housing. 4

Lead Warning Statement

- Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 6
- is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at 7
- risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological 8
- damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired 9
- memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The Seller of any interest in residential 10
- real property is required to provide the Buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk 11
- assessments or inspections in the Seller's possession and notify the Buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. 12
- A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase 13

Seller Disclosure Seller to check one box below:

Seller has no knowledge, records, or reports of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the 17 housing. 18

Seller is aware of the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing and has provided the Buyer with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing. List any records, reports and/or additional information, including but not limited to the basis for the determination that lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards exists, the location of the lead-based paint and the conditions of the painted surfaces. This requirement includes records or reports regarding common areas. It also includes records or reports of other residential dwellings in multifamily housing, provided that such information is part of an evaluation or reduction of lead-based paint and/or leadbased paint hazards in the target housing as a whole. If no reports or records are available. Seller shall indicate as such.

Buyer Acknowledgment

- 1) Buyer has received copies of all records, reports and information listed above (if any);
- 2) Buyer has read the Lead Warning Statement (above) and understands its contents:
- 3) Buyer has received the lead hazard information pamphlet. "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home" (Copies available at http://www.hud.gov and http://www.epa.gov);
- 4) Buyer has received a 10-day opportunity (unless the parties mutually agreed upon a different period of time) before becoming obligated under the contract to purchase the housing to conduct a risk assessment or inspection for the presence of lead-based paint hazards. This opportunity is waived if Buyer checks the second box below.

Buyer to check one box below:

- Contract is subject to Buyer's approval of the results of a risk assessment or inspection of the property for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards, to be completed at the Buyer's expense. This
- contingency shall be satisfied within 10 calendar days after the Binding Agreement Date.
