Description

This property was a cypress brake(Cleora Brake)years ago and is a natural waterfowl stop over and a great place to duck, deer and dove hunt. The tract is enrolled in WRP and includes tow shallow water areas composing approx. 40-45 acres, all inside of large elevated levees. Property lies along the flyway connecting Handy brake, Wham Brake and Russell Sage and sits along Red Hill where the delta begins. The remainder of the tract includes 3 year old hardwood/cypress trees and numerous food plots for deer. Property bordered by woods on east and west with large deer herd in the area. Tract also has great dove hunting and is natural flyway and watering spot. Crawfishing on the tract is exceptional. The pond on west side was stocked with bass, bream and catfish. Two pit blinds, new electric irrigation well, new 1000 sq ft camp with 3 bedrooms, fireplace, 16' vaulted ceiling, loft, cypress tongue and groove walls, pine floors, and 36' front porch to take in the view. Tract also includes 400 sq ft shop with tractor shed attached. Camp fully furnished and most furniture included. 100 hp international tractor can be purchased separately.
