

FIND A GRAVE

Actions

- Begin New Search
- Refine Last Search
- Cemetery Lookup
- Add Burial Records
- Help with Find A Grave

Find all Birds in:

- Fort Griffin Cemetery
- Bell County
- Texas
- Find A Grave

Top Contributors

Success Stories

Discussion Forums

Find A Grave Store

Log In

Advertisement

The Cardiac Killer

Shocking! Major Lie Exposed About Your Heart's Health

Heart Health Research

Odd Trick to Perfect 20/20 Vision

Shockingly simple trick to perfect 20/20 vision in 2 weeks amazed...

Quantum Vision

(1) Crazy Trick Reverses Hearing Loss

Want your hearing back? Try this natural remedy that...

ads

Capt John Bird

Memorial Photos Flowers Share Edit

Learn about upgrading this memorial...

Birth: 1795
Tennessee, USA
Death: May 26, 1839
Bell County
Texas, USA

Captain John Bird is a Texas Ranger who was killed by Comanche Indians at the Battle of Bird Creek. He also served during the War of 1812, and he served in the First Regiment in the Texas Revolutionary Army. He is buried in a mass grave in the center of the cemetery with four other Texas Rangers.

He is the son of William Bird who came to America from England in the early 1700's. He migrated to Texas in 1829 with his family, and settled on the Brazos River on Old Cow Coopers' in Austin County near San Felipe.

His wife is Sarah Elizabeth "Sallie" (Denton) Bird. Their children are Elba, Nancy Jane, William Parrish, Thomas Jefferson, and Wincy Bird.

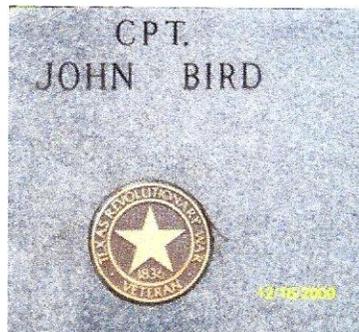

From Officer Down Memorial Page odmp.org:

Continuing Indian raids caused settlers on the upper Brazos, Trinity and Colorado rivers to petition the Congress of the Republic of Texas for help. On Sunday, May 26, 1839, Captain John Bird and Private Nathaniel Brookshire encountered three Indians skinning a buffalo and routed them, capturing one of their horses laden with meat. Around 9:00 a.m., a small party of Indians busily chasing a herd of buffalo and sighted the rangers at the supposedly abandoned Fort Smith.

At 1:00 p.m., Captain Bird and 35 rangers tried to catch up with the Indians who remained just outside of rifle range. The rangers charged, but to no avail, and decided to retreat. At that point the rangers were surrounded by 40 Indians. The rangers dismounted and walked their horses into the ravine (later named Bird's Creek). Private H. M. C. Hall persisted in remaining on horseback, and he was mortally wounded while dismounting on the bank.

Smoke signals were sent and 200 Indians arrived from the Comanche, Caddo and Kickapoo tribes. The Indians charged several times, but were repulsed by the rangers' accurate fire. In the battle, Private Thomas Gay fell dead in the ditch from a rifle ball; Private Jesse E. Nash was shot and killed by an arrow; First Sergeant William H. Weaver was killed by a rifle ball to the head; and Second Lieutenant William R. Allen and Private George W. Hensel were severely wounded.

As the Indian fell back a second time, Captain Bird jumped up on the bank to encourage his men and was shot through the heart by an

Added by: Larry Morgan

Added by: SFC Frank Irons Sr. Retired US Army 1977

Added by: SFC Frank Irons Sr. Retired US Army 1977

Add a photo for this person Request A Photo

There are 2 more photos not showing...
Click here to view all images...

Photos may be scaled.
Click on image for full size.

+ - The Winston Scott Family
Added: Apr. 11, 2013

Buffalo Hump, Comanche Chief, was the Senior Warrior who led the massacre of the 35 men. He was shot through the neck by a German arrow launched by an Indian at the extraordinary distance of 200 yards. Just at dark Comanche War Chief Buffalo Hump and 12 warriors charged the rangers. The war chief was killed and the Indians withdrew. The rangers reported to have killed about 30-40 Indians and wounded about as many. The rangers secreted the bodies of Bird, Weaver, Gay and Nash in the ravine and carted off the three wounded rangers – Allen, Hensel and Hall. They reached Fort Smith about 2:00 a.m. on Monday, May 27. Private Hall died soon after reaching the fort. Several days later the rangers returned to collect the bodies. They were buried in one large crude coffin side-by-side on the banks of the Little River near Fort Smith.

The battle became known to Texans as "Bird's Victory." Very little is known about the 5 rangers except Bird. Bird was born in 1795 in Tennessee and was married with 4 children when he arrived in Texas in 1830. He had fought with Andrew Jackson in the War of 1812, against the Comanche in 1832 and the Mexicans during the Texas Revolution in 1836. Weaver was born in Mississippi and was about 21 years of age.

In 1936, two Texas Centennial markers were placed in Temple, Bell County, in honor of Captain John Bird, First Sergeant William H. Weaver, and Privates H. M. C. Hall, Thomas Gay and Jesse E. Nash.

Family links:

Children:

- William Parrish Bird (1819 - 1899)*
- Thomas Jefferson Bird (1821 - 1897)*

*Calculated relationship

Burial:

Fort Griffin Cemetery
Bell County
Texas, USA

Created by: Larry Morgan
Record added: Jan 05, 2007
Find A Grave Memorial# 17306407

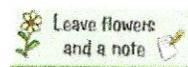

Ranger: James W. Robinett.
-Anonymous

Added: Aug. 25, 2010

Thank you for serving our country.
- Kay Hawkins Douglass

Added: Mar. 31, 2010

There are 7 more notes not showing...
Click here to view all notes...

Advertisement

Vital Records Found For John Bird in Texas

 43 Death Certificates found for John Bird   203 Birth Certificates found for John Bird 	 92 Marriage Certificates found for John Bird   23 Divorce Certificates found for John Bird
--	--

361 Vital Records for John Bird

Sponsored by Ancestry

Privacy Statement and Terms of Service