

The Bunkhouse

A covered brick walkway leads from the mudroom to a two-story bunkhouse. The upstairs overlooks the kitchen garden area and is fully carpeted for play space or multiple beds.

Downstairs, the main living area features a gas fireplace and four cupboard bunk beds. There is a generous dressing room and bath with stall shower. The bunkhouse is currently set up[as a video viewing area.

The Guesthouse

The 600 square foot guest house is a cozy cottage across the gazebo porch from the main residence. The living room, with a gas fireplace, looks across the garden toward Mt. Hood; the bedroom vista is towards the fields and orchards. The guesthouse bath has a tub/shower and there is a micro-kitchen for guests' use.
