

An aerial photograph showing a stream flowing vertically through the center of the image. To the left of the stream, two adjacent areas are outlined in red. The area on the far left is labeled 'Lot 26' and the area to its right is labeled 'Lot 25'. A red line also extends from the bottom of Lot 25, crossing the stream and continuing to the right, where it forms a large rectangular boundary enclosing a significant portion of the right side of the image. The terrain is covered in dense, dark green vegetation.
