

Out Buildings

The Tri-County Ranch is open to many uses and has several large metal buildings for storage. The "Gator Barn" is used for housing ATV's. The "Potato Shed" is used for entertaining and has a covered picnic area. There is also a storm shelter, an office and a dock with several boat slips. This property has many possibilities and potential for a private retreat. With the main living quarters sitting in almost the center of the ranch, you are guaranteed privacy and tranquility.

