201 Main Street, Datil, New Mexico

Historically, this property was the original Post Office and Fire House located on two city lots in the small town of Datil, NM. The current owner has run a business and resided on the property. Improvements include the old post office that has been converted to 1165 sq. ft. of living quarters complete with kitchen, living room, laundry area, bed and bath. A 600 sq. ft. cabin containing kitchen, living area, bed and bath, a 2 car garage with large sliding doors and the pump house with a 100 ft. well. With a little improving, this would be an ideal property for someone that is wanting to live in a small quiet town and run a small business. Possible owner financing and priced under Appraisal Value!

$79,500
