Precious 1960's three-bedroom, two-bath home and guest cottage nestled on a double lot with incredible mature trees.

This well-cared for home offers cozy living with an island kitchen, cathedral ceiling in the living room, and clawfoot tubs in both baths. Wonderful potential for a family needing mother-in-law quarters or space for additional housing.

The covered front and back porches, white picket fence, ample covered parking, workshop areas, and private backyard all add to the property's charm and versatility for easy living.
