

An aerial photograph of a wooded area. A red line outlines a large, roughly rectangular region. Inside this region, a white line traces a winding path or road. The text '11.000 acres' is written in white in the upper left portion of the red-outlined area. The text 'Shephards Hill Rd. (T.R. 119)' is written in white along the white line. In the lower right, outside the red boundary, there is a small clearing with a white building and some other structures.
