The Dodds Farm is a chance to acquire an established agriculture operation and mature timberland with deer hunting opportunities.

The property consists of 265.88 +/- contiguous acres, ideal for transforming into the quintessential gentleman's farm. The land may continue operating in its current state; however, the property lends itself to further enhancement such as home construction, recreational use, a small-scale cattle operation, or a combination of all.

The same family has owned the farm for the last 156 years, and the current farmer has worked the ground for over 30 years. The land rests west of the Tennessee River in Hardin County, Tennessee, between the towns of Milledgeville and Crump.

Soils are classified as Waverly Silt Loam and Falaya Silt Loam, and the cultivated acres have a reputation for being above-average quality for the area. 150.02 +/- acres is income-producing farmland, and 104.88 +/- acres are in timberland. The woods are predominantly mixed hardwoods with 17 +/- acres in a mature pine plantation. The remaining acreage of 10.98 +/- acres is in roads and ditches.

Access to the property is via Tennessee Highway 69 and interior roads. Listed below is the estimated mileage from the farm to notable cities and towns.

Savannah, TN	10 miles
Selmer, TN	22 miles
Corinth, MS	40 miles
Bolivar, TN	50 miles
Jackson, TN	60 miles
Memphis, TN	100 miles
Nashville, TN	135 miles

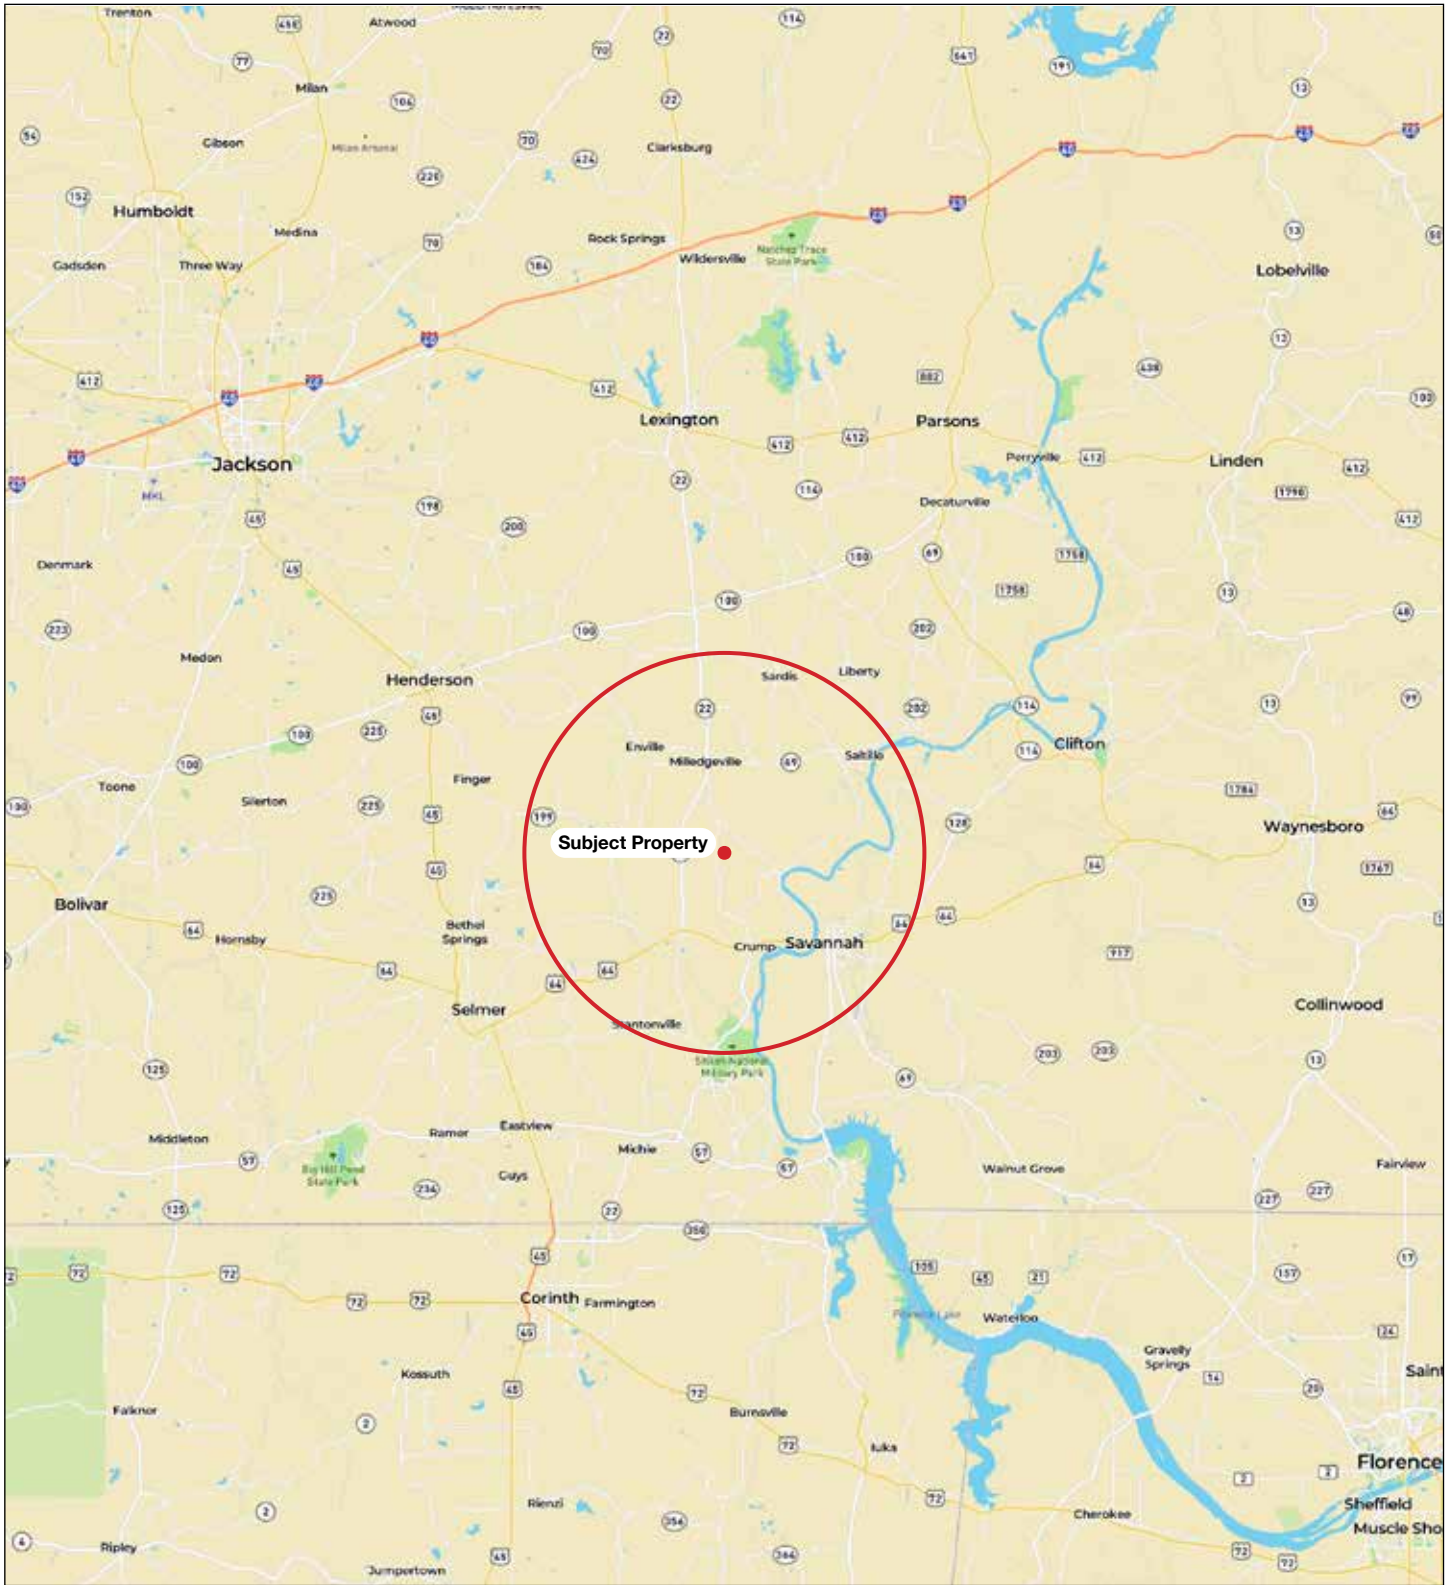

The Dodds Farm is listed for sale by Chuck Myers of Myers Cobb Realtors for $990,000.00 ($3,723.48 per acre). Qualified buyers should contact Chuck at 901-830-5836 regarding questions or schedule a property tour.
