PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Meybohm Commercial is proud to bring the Old Wrightsboro Road Recreational Tract to market. This tract is located less than half a mile from I-20 and just shy of a mile from Thomson, Ga. Offering a variety of assets including planted pines around 18 years old. The timber has already been scheduled to be thinned in 2022 per the management program. The natural hardwoods that run throughout are perfect to feed and hold wildlife as well. Hardwood drains also run down the property towards the creek and make for some awesome bottoms.

The deer sign in plentiful with ideal roads cut in to access different portions of the property. There is also 3500 feet of road frontage which makes this an ideal potential development site. Overall, this property is one of the best remaining large tracts close to Thomson. With all the development in the CSRA and its close proximity to the interstate and town, it is a must see. Give us a call today to set up a showing!
