This auction represents a significant offering of some of the very best located, most diverse and scenic property in the entire Black Hills of South Dakota. This unique property features 2.5+- miles of beautiful Whitewood Creek meandering full length. Terrain varies from productive hay meadows to steep timbered canyons and spectacular rimrock views of the surrounding Black Hills. The unspoiled natural beauty offered is unmatched by any property available today. Mature oaks, aspens, and ponderosa pines, native grasses, berries and wildflowers flourish. Whitetail & mule deer, elk & wild turkey abound. The views of Whitewood Creek against majestic rock cliffs are breathtaking. Crystal caves and evidence of 1880's placer mining will intrigue your imagination of past colorful history. Bordering Black Hills National Forest with direct access off paved Crook City Rd., in the ever popular “Centennial Valley” area, makes the investment/development potential endless.

A wide variety of individual tracts are available. For example, NE parcels joining & near Crook City Rd. include fertile hay meadows, rimrock views overlooking Whitewood Creek, a scenic old railroad bridge and an older set of ranch buildings, a well, and a natural-fed spring. Butte Electric supplies power to the area, making this a perfect country home site location. Central and NW tracks are gently sloping, and mostly timbered, many with spectacular views of both the Centennial Valley/Spearfish area and the Canyon/Creek below. An additional access from “Sawmill Rd.” certainly make this area prime for homesites and/or further development. Finally, the southern tracts feature the Whitewood Creek bottom as well as the actual summit of Crook Mountain. If you desire complete seclusion surrounded by natural beauty, “stake your claim” here!
