I, Edward Lee Burnette, Jr., of Bluefield, Mercer County, West Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following:

First: I direct that my body shall be interred in accordance with the wishes of my wife.

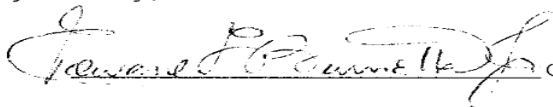

Second: I direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and administrative costs, including all inheritance, legacy and estate taxes be paid out of the corpus of my estate as soon after my death as conveniently can be done.

Third: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, wheresoever situate, of which I may die seized or possessed or to which I may be entitled, or over which I may have power of appointment at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Bernice Brooks Burnette, to be hers and her heirs forever.

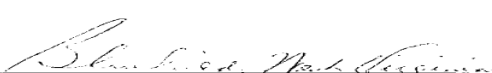

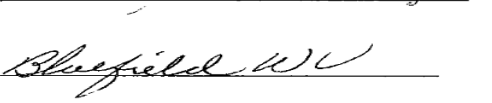

Fourth: I hereby nominate and appoint Bernice Brooks Burnette to be the executrix of this my last will and testament.

Fifth: I hereby revoke all former and other wills by me at any time heretobefore made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this the 16th day of July, 1987.

 (SEAL)

The foregoing instrument consisting of one page including this one was subscribed, sealed, published and declared by Edward Lee Burnette, Jr., of Bluefield, West Virginia, as and for his last will and testament in our presence and in the presence of each of us and we at the same time, at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other hereunto have subscribed our names and residences as attesting witnesses this 16th day July, 1987.

WEST VIRGINIA:

IN MERCER COUNTY COMMISSION CLERK'S OFFICE, NOVEMBER 29, 2011.

This day came Bernice Brooks Burnette and presented and offered for probate a paper writing, bearing date of July 16, 1987, purporting to be the last will and testament of Edward Lee Burnett, Jr., deceased.

It appearing that the said decedent at the time of his death on October 20, 2011, had a known place of residence in the County of Mercer and State of West Virginia, thereupon came Cecil Smith, Jr., one of the two subscribing witnesses to said will, who, after being first duly sworn, deposed and said that Edward Lee Burnette, Jr., the testator, signed and acknowledged the said paper writing as and for his last will and testament in their presence, and at the time thereof the said Edward Lee Burnette, Jr., was of sound mind, and at the request of the said Bettie F. Shaw, the other one of the two subscribing witnesses thereto, signed their names to said paper writing in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other, as attesting witnesses thereof.

The said will, being thus proved, is ordered to be recorded and filed, as directed by law.
