Dear Property Owner:

This appraisal on the property listed below is for the 2024 tax year.

Beginning August 7th, visit Texas.gov/PropertyTaxes to find a link to your local property tax database on which you can easily access information regarding your property taxes, including information regarding the amount of taxes that each entity that taxes your property will impose if the entity adopts its proposed tax rate. Your local property tax database will be updated regularly during August and September as local elected officials propose and adopt the property tax rates that will determine how much you pay in property taxes.

Percent difference from 2019 is a 35.00% increase.

The governing body of each taxing unit decides whether taxes on the property will increase and the appraisal district only determines the property's value. The Texas Legislature does not set the amount of your local taxes. Your property tax burden is decided by your locally elected officials, and all inquiries concerning your taxes should be directed to those officials.

If you qualified your home for an age 65 or older or disabled person homestead exemption for school taxes, the school taxes on that property cannot increase as long as you own and live in that home. The tax ceiling is the amount you pay in that year that you qualified for the age 65 or older or disabled person exemption. The school taxes on your home may not go above the amount of the ceiling, unless you improve the home (other than normal repairs or maintenance).

Enclosed are copies of the following documents published by the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts: (1) Property Taxpayer Remedies; and (2) notice of protest. The Appraisal Review Board will begin hearing protests on 6/19/2024 8:30:00AM. To file a protest, complete the notice of protest form by following the instructions included on the form and, no later than 06/04/2024, mail or deliver the form to the appraisal review board at the following address: PO BOX 1200; 402 S MAIN ST., Wheeler, Texas 79096.

Property owners who file a notice of protest with the appraisal review board (ARB) may request an informal conference with the appraisal district to attempt to resolve a dispute prior to a formal ARB hearing. In counties with populations of 1 million or more, property owners may request an ARB special panel for certain property protests. Contact your appraisal district for further information.

Attention for Non-Homestead Properties: Under Section 23.231, Tax Code, for the 2024, 2025, and 2026 tax years, the appraised value of real property other than a residence homestead for ad valorem tax purposes may not be increased by more than 20 percent each year, with certain exceptions. The circuit breaker limitation provided under Section 23.231, Tax Code, expires December 31, 2026. Unless this expiration date is extended by the Texas Legislature, beginning in the 2027 tax year, the circuit breaker limitation

INFORMATION REGARDING ONLINE PROTESTS

The Wheeler Central Appraisal District is offering the option to electronically file a Notice of Protest on your property . This is mandated by the Texas Property Tax Code Section 41.415.

When you receive your property Notice of Appraised Value in the mail , you may choose to protest your value online by visiting our website at www.wheelercad.org and use the following instructions.

Click on the "Online Protest" menu item located under Services. If you choose to come in to the appraisal district or call the appraisal district and initiate an inquiry and/or send in your protest by mail, you will not be able to protest online.

You will need to create an online profile to submit a protest online . If you have not already done so, you can click the "Sign Up" button and enter your information. Once you have signed in, you will be able to add your property to your dashboard.

Enter your Online Owner PIN (that is located on your Notice of Appraised Value) in the box and click "Add Property". You can then click on the house icon to view your property details and click on "File A Protest".

If you have already created an online profile, please sign in and follow the steps above by clicking on the house to view the property details and click on "File A Protest".

If you think you should be eligible to file a protest online but cannot, please contact us at 806-826-5900.

Fill out the form by answering all questions. When all questions are completed, you will be required to agree to sign the protest digitally, and you will have the ability to view and/or print your own copy of the protest for your records. A copy of your protest will also be saved on your dashboard to access at any time.

The Wheeler Central Appraisal District will receive a notification of your protest and will contact you regarding your request .

You or your property (including inherited property) may qualify for one of these residence homestead exemptions. Contact your appraisal district for more information.
