GENERAL OVERVIEW

The 90 acre Knox County Ranch is an outstanding hunting property located in Knox County approximately 6.5 miles North of Goree TX on County Rd 4371. Great cover includes large Cottonwoods, Hackberry, Chinaberry and Mesquite. The property has abundant wild plum groves which is excellent forage and cover for all types of wildlife.

LOCATION

The Ranch has access from County Road 4371 and is only 3 hours from the DFW Metroplex and 2 hours East of Lubbock. Both Benjamin and Seymour TX are approximately 20 miles from the ranch.

WILDLIFE

Wildlife on the ranch includes trophy native free ranging whitetails. Animals use the Brazos River as a highway. With the dove, quail, turkey, wild hogs, and predators, this is everything the outdoor enthusiast could want.

IMPROVEMENTS

Electricity is located approximately 200 yards from the front gate. Several good home sites.

MINERALS

With an acceptable offer, seller will convey 50% of seller-owned minerals which is believed to be 50%. There is no production and no leases.

TERRAIN

The majority of the land is rolling with Cottonwood, mesquite, post oak, hackberry and chinaberry tree cover with very few cedars. There are many varieties of browse for deer. Excellent native grasses include little blue stem, side oats, tabosa, silver bluestem, blue grama, hairy grama, buffalo and switch grass. The soil is sandy to red sandy loam the best!

WATER

The Seymour Munday aquifer runs under the ranch. There is a high production well across the County Road just East of the property. There are also several good locations to build ponds.

SUMMARY

Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to own your own hunting property idea for building a home or holding for investment.
