Outstanding Mexican restaurant, in a city that is 50% Hispanic. The facility has been prospering since August of 2018. The dining area has high quality furniture and the kitchen has everything one needs to run a high quality food preparation facility. There is plenty of Downtown parking space. The building has alley access and plenty of room for expansion. The building is well maintained and decorated. An alcohol permit will allow the restaurant to host even more

Directions: The restaurant in on the west side, of the middle of the 200 block of South Ragsdale Street, between Commerce Street and East Rusk street (U.S. 79 E.)
