224 A. Definitions.

- 225 1. Broker: In this Agreement, the term “Broker” shall mean a licensed Tennessee real estate broker or brokerage 226 firm and where the context would indicate, the Broker’s affiliated licensees.
- 227 2. Designated Agent for the Seller: The individual licensee that has been assigned by the Managing Broker and 228 is working as an agent for the Seller or Property Owner in this consumer’s prospective transaction, to the exclusion
 229 of all other licensees in the company. Even if someone else in the licensee’s company represents a possible Buyer
 230 for this Seller’s Property, the Designated Agent for the Seller shall continue to work as an advocate for the best
 231 interests of the Seller or Property Owner. An agency relationship of this type cannot, by law, be established 232 without a written agency agreement.
- 233 3. Facilitator / Transaction Broker (not an agent for either party): The licensee is not working as an agent for 234 either party in this consumer’s prospective transaction. A Facilitator may advise either or both of the parties to a 235 transaction but cannot be considered a representative or advocate of either party. “Transaction Broker” may be 236 used synonymously with, or in lieu of, “Facilitator” as used in any disclosures, forms or agreements. [By law, any 237 Licensee or company who has not entered into a written agency agreement with either party in the transaction is 238 considered a Facilitator or Transaction Broker until such time as an agency agreement is established.]
- 239 4. Dual agency: The licensee has agreements to provide services as an agent to more than one (1) party in a specific 240 transaction and in which the interests of such parties are adverse. This agency status may only be employed upon 241 full disclosure to each party and with each party’s informed consent.
- 242 5. Adverse Facts: “Adverse Facts” means conditions or occurrences generally recognized by competent licensees 243 that have a negative impact on the value of the real estate, significantly reduce the structural integrity of 244 improvements to real property or present a significant health risk to occupants of the property.

245 6. Confidentiality: By law, every licensee is obligated to protect some information as confidential. This includes 246 any information revealed by a consumer which may be helpful to the other party IF it was revealed by the 247 consumer BEFORE the licensee disclosed any agency relationship with that other party. AFTER the licensee 248 discloses that licensee has an agency relationship with another party, any such information which the consumer 249 THEN reveals must be passed on by the licensee to that other party.

250 B. Duties owed to all Parties to a Transaction.

251 Pursuant to the Tennessee Real Estate Broker License Act, every Real Estate Licensee owes the following duties
252 to every Buyer and Seller, Tenant and Landlord (collectively “Buyers” and “Sellers”) unless otherwise 253 provided by law:

- 254 1. To diligently exercise reasonable skill and care in providing services to all parties to the transaction;
- 255 2. To disclose to each party to the transaction any Adverse Facts of which licensee has actual notice or knowledge;
- 256 3. To maintain for each party in a transaction the confidentiality of any information obtained by a licensee prior to 257 disclosure to all parties of a written agency agreement entered into by the licensee to represent either or both 258 parties in the transaction. This duty of confidentiality extends to any information which the party would 259 reasonably expect to be held in confidence, except for information which the party has authorized for disclosure
260 or information required by law to be disclosed. This duty survives both the subsequent establishment of an agency 261 relationship and the closing of the transaction;
- 262 4. To provide services to each party to the transaction with honesty and good faith;
- 263 5. To disclose to each party to the transaction timely and accurate information regarding market conditions that 264 might affect such transaction only when such information is available through public records and when such 265 information is requested by a party;
- 266 6. To timely account for earnest money deposits and all other property received from any party to a transaction; and
- 267 7. A) To refrain from engaging in self-dealing or acting on behalf of licensee’s immediate family, or on behalf of 268 any other individual, organization or business entity in which licensee has a personal interest without prior 269 disclosure of such personal interest and the timely written consent of all parties to the transaction; and 270 B) To refrain from recommending to any party to the transaction the use of services of another individual, 271 organization or business entity in which the licensee has an interest or from whom the licensee may receive a 272 referral fee or other compensation for the referral, other than referrals to other licensees to provide real estate 273 services, without timely disclosure to the party who receives the referral, the licensee’s interest in such referral or 274 the fact that a referral fee may be received.

275 C. Duties owed to Client.

276 In addition to the above, the Licensee has the following duties to Client if the Licensee has become an Agent or 277 Designated Agent in a transaction, pursuant to the Tennessee Real Estate Broker License Act:

- 278 1. Obey all lawful instructions of the client when such instructions are within the scope of the agency agreement 279 between the licensee and licensee’s client;
- 280 2. Be loyal to the interests of the client. Licensee must place the interests of the client before all others in negotiation 281 of a transaction and in other activities, except where such loyalty/duty would violate licensee’s duties to a 282 customer in the transaction; and
- 283 3. Unless the following duties are specifically and individually waived in writing by a client, licensee shall assist 284 the client by:
 - 285 A) Scheduling all Property showings on behalf of the client;
 - 286 B) Receiving all offers and counter offers and forwarding them promptly to the client;
 - 287 C) Answering any questions that the client may have in negotiation of a successful purchase agreement 288 within the scope of the licensee’s expertise; and
 - 289 D) Advising the client as to whatever forms, procedures and steps are needed after execution of the purchase 290 agreement for a successful closing of the transaction.

291 Upon waiver of any of the above duties listed under subsection 12.C.3., a consumer must be advised in writing 292 by such consumer’s agent that the consumer may not expect or seek assistance from any other licensees in the 293 transaction for the performance of said duties.
